IMPRISONMENT

The defendant is committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a total term of 37 months.

The Court recommends that Immigration and Customs Enforcement begin removal proceedings during service of sentence.

Defendant Ariel Omar Tena-Nevarez` offense level is 20, and his criminal history category is III, establishing a guideline imprisonment range of 41 to 51 months. Nevertheless, the Court concludes that a sentence of 37 months is more appropriate. In arriving at this sentence, the Court has considered the guidelines carefully, but also taken into account other sentencing goals. Specifically, the Court has considered the guideline sentencing range established for the applicable category of offense committed by the applicable category of defendant. And while the Court thinks the punishment in the guidelines is very close to the appropriate sentence here, the Court ultimately concludes that the punishment set forth in the guidelines is too high for the offense committed in this case. The Court has considered the kinds of sentences and ranges that the guidelines establish, and believes that a sentence consistent with one more offense level downward is appropriate in this case.

Also, the Court has reviewed carefully the letters from Tena-Nevarez` family and all of them describe Tena-Nevarez as a loving and compassionate person whose parents did not give him proper discipline when he was a child. The Court understands that it must treat seriously these crimes and not undercut what Congress has done, or what the United States Attorney s Office is doing with this fast-track program. The Court, however, believes that a sentence in excess of forty months is too high.

In sum, the Court believes that a sentence of 37 months properly reflects the seriousness of this offense, adequately promotes respect for the law, provides just punishment, affords of adequate deterrence, protects the public, and otherwise fully reflects each of the factors embodied in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a). The Court also believes that this sentence is reasonable, without being greater than is necessary to comply with the purposes of punishment set forth in the Sentencing Reform Act. In this situation, a sentence of 37 months more appropriately balances those factors than the one in the 41 to 51 month range. The Court therefore sentences Tena-Nevarez to a term of 37 months in the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

☒ The court makes these recommendations to the Bureau of Prisons:

Phoenix Federal Correctional Institution, Phoenix, Arizona, if eligible

- ☒ The defendant is remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal.
- ☐ The defendant must surrender to the United States Marshal for this district:
- ☐ at on
  - ☐ as notified by the United States Marshal.
- ☐ The defendant must surrender for service of sentence at the institution designated by the Bureau of Prisons:
- ☐ before 2 p.m. on
  - ☐ as notified by the United States Marshal
  - ☐ as notified by the Probation or Pretrial Service Office.
